The very purpose of Christ's coming into the world was that He might offer up His life as a sacrifice for the sins of men. He came to die and to rise again. This is the heart of Christmas. --Rev. Billy Graham

Christmas Eve Candlelight Communion Services

December 24, 2009

2:30 - 4:15 - 6:00 - 7:45pm

The Celebration of Worship

Before worship, talk to God. During worship, let God talk to you.

After worship, talk to your fellow worshiper.

Here at Faith Community Lutheran...we almost always follow the traditional order of worship familiar to most Lutherans, but usually our services are a “blend” of old and new music. As Lutherans, we view ourselves as a church of “Word & Sacrament.” Therefore, “God’s Word” is held in high esteem as we follow the Scripture readings and the sermon with our Bibles open.

FCLC is among a growing number of Lutheran Churches committed to celebrating the Sacrament of Holy Communion every week, including the baptized of all ages. As we begin our worship, all are invited to “examine themselves” (1 Cor.11:28) during the Confession as we prepare to receive the Word and Holy Communion.

Welcome, Guests!

We are grateful that you have joined us in worship on this Christmas Eve.

We welcome little children as we worship! In respect for others, you may bring your restless child(ren) to our well-equipped, staffed nursery during the service. Our speaker system provides excellent audio of the service in the Narthex and nursery.
—Thank you.

“Silent Night”

Closing Prayer

Postlude

“Gloria! Gloria!”

They cry, for their song embraces all that the Lord has begun this day:

“Glory to God in the highest of heavens!
And peace to the people with whom He is pleased!”

And who are these people?

With whom does the good Lord choose to take his pleasure?

The Shepherds.

The plain and nameless—whose every name the Lord knows well.

You. And me.

With thanksgiving and best wishes for peace in Christ.

May the Miracle of that first Christmas renew your hearts
with peace, joy, and hope.
